Under the present system Concord received from the State in 1905 $456.03 for highways, and $825.64 for schools, more than it paid to the State, and the State paid $390 to care for the town's insane patients. Clement would abolish this system.

This town now sends a representative to Montpelier. Clement calls this a "rotten borough system," and would have Sutton lose its identity in the legislature and become part of a "legislative district."

In 1900 Senator Clement prevented an increased tax on corporations, and fathered the last State tax ever levied in Vermont. This saved Mr. Clement's railroad $28,199.34 in 1901. It cost Sutton $441.61.
